PROJECTS

Complaint management system | May 2022 - February 2023

- Developed an end-to-end complaint management system as an individual project to streamline and automate the process of handling customer complaints, ensuring efficient resolution and improved customer satisfaction.

personal portfolio | February 2021 - March 2024

- Created a dynamic personal portfolio website with guidance from YouTube tutorial videos and support from my College professor, despite not being an IT student. Leveraged HTML, CSS, and JavaScript to design an engaging platform showcasing my skills, projects, and professional experience. Incorporated interactive elements and responsive design principles learned from tutorials to ensure a seamless user experience across devices. This project not only demonstrates my technical abilities but also highlights my proactive approach to learning and collaboration.
